

MaPP Subregions

- Central Coast
- North Coast
- No planning ongoing in this area
- Haida Gwaii
- North Vancouver Island

The Marine Planning Partnership (MaPP) between the provincial government and First Nations groups aims to develop a marine use plan for the north and central coasts of British Columbia. Planning is underway within four subregions and is incorporating advice from local governments, user groups and conservation organizations.

Explore the natural riches and human activities in these regions: <http://www.livingoceans.org/ocean-planning-mapp>

